"Between Illusions and Realities. Recovering Missionary Accounts of Southeast Asia from the End of the Seventeenth Century."

January 26, 2021, 2:30 p.m.

The Faculty of History (University of Warsaw) is delighted to hold the lecture of Doctor Stefan Halikowski Smith (Swansea University) entitled "Between Illusions and Realities. Recovering Missionary Accounts of Southeast Asia from the End of the Seventeenth Century."

Doctor Halikowski Smith, a reputed researcher of the Early Modern trading empires and the Missionary written culture, is a visiting professor in the academic year 2020/21 (ZIP Program). The lecture focuses on the description written by Guy Tachard, a French Jesuit, and by Nicola Cima, an Italian Augustinian. These interesting, substantial texts tell us a lot both about the Europeans who were writing them, and about Southeast Asia in a period when information was in much shorter supply than prior to 1688.
